

DIARY NOTES

DD/S

29 September 1971

Meeting with Colonel White: On this date, at his request, I met with Colonel White to talk about the [REDACTED] building photobinders. I also covered a number of other points. 25X1A

25X1A [REDACTED] In this discussion it was agreed that we would use the nine sets for: Director, Executive Director (his will come back), GSA Administrator Kunzig (with DD/S to arrange through Rod Kreger to get five minutes for personal presentation to Mr. Kunzig), National Fine Arts Commission, NCPC, Harrison and Abramowitz, CIA Archives, CIA Library, and Mr. Goodwin. (I suggested we might put them in places where visitors come and wait and perhaps the Executive Director and Director sets could be so used.) The Executive Director will respond to the [REDACTED] memorandum to him. 25X1A

g. [REDACTED] letter: [REDACTED] came in on this date with a proposed letter reacting to the revised State paper on declassification of specific papers. It had the concurrence of General Counsel, AD/NIFE, DD/I and DD/P. After some discussion I signed the concurrence. [REDACTED] clued me to the fact that there had been a meeting some days ago in which this matter was discussed by and with the Director (only the Director of Security from Support was present.)

I subsequently advised the Executive Director of the [REDACTED] letter and he reacted most strongly that we shouldn't send anything which constituted agreement to provide any documents. He mentioned that the Director was dealing personally with Mr. Ehrlichman on the matter, that [REDACTED] was helping with staff work. I passed this to [REDACTED] and he agreed to hold the letter but pointed out that in its absence the State draft could be approved.

Later in the afternoon I asked the Executive Director for his okay to release the letter since it didn't commit us to provide anything and would ensure our control. Colonel White thought this was reasonable but wished to clear it with the Director in view of his personal involvement. I asked [REDACTED] to deliver the original of the proposed letter to the Executive Director so that he could take it up with the Director.
